In accordance with Federal Regulatory Citations, institutions are required to provide the following information for programmes that lead to gainful employment.

Notes

1. US credit and clock hours is not used in the UK, but ten study hours per UK credit is considered the norm. The Artist Diploma courses are not divided into credits and modules, but are full-time study that demand at least an equal intensity of study.

2. Median Loan Debt and On-time Completion Rates – these are not published for courses from which fewer than ten Title IV students graduated within the last academic year.

3. Standard Occupational Classification Codes – 27-2042 is the code for 'Musicians and singers'. Please see